THE LOOK THAT ATTRACTS MILLIONS

15001

The image is a fashion catalog entry for a dark green, long-sleeved, floor-length dress. It features a woman in the same dress as in the first image, standing in a traditional Indian architectural setting. The dress is heavily embroidered with gold and silver thread, featuring a large, stylized paisley motif on the front and a wide, flowing dupatta with a matching pattern. The woman is also wearing large, ornate earrings and a ring. The background shows arched doorways and a light-colored wall. The image is framed by a decorative border with gold and green corner ornaments. At the top, the brand name 'MUMTAZ ARTS' is written in a serif font, with a small logo above it and the tagline 'Designs by Anamika' below it. At the bottom, the text 'THE LOOK THAT ATTRACTS MILLIONS' is written in a small, all-caps font, followed by the number '15001'.
